ANTHONY M. PASQUARIELLO AWARD (for undergraduate students)

Established in 1994 as the Barcelona Program Scholarship fund, this award was renamed in 1999 for Professor Pasquariello who established our department's Barcelona study abroad program and a scholarship endowment for students studying in Barcelona.

Submission Deadline: March 15, 2019
Award: $1,000 travel stipend

Guidelines:

- Candidates must be currently enrolled in undergraduate courses in Spanish at UIUC.
- The student must have been admitted to the Barcelona (year-long) program.
- Documents that need to be presented with the application:
  a) Application Form (attached)
  b) Study Plan (no more than 500 words) explaining the purpose for study abroad in Barcelona and how it will contribute to the student’s future plans. Narrative must indicate how this award would facilitate the study-abroad experience in financial terms.
  c) Recent transcript.
- Students will be selected by the Committee on Undergraduate Awards. The primary criteria for the concession of the award will be the relevance of the travel for the student’s academic goals, as well as the student’s overall academic performance. Preference will also be given to students for whom this will be their first abroad experience.
